“OBSERVE THE SORT OF LIFE WE LIVE”

In every society people observe the actions of others. When many people ignore a particular law others conclude that it is alright for them to do the same. Children often imitate the behaviours of their parents. When we practise the law of love in our lives we benefit not only those who need our help but also those who observe our actions.

Entrance Antiphon

Cf. Ps 104: 3-4

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice;
turn to the Lord and his strength;
constantly seek his face.

First Reading

Exodus 22:20-26

A reading from the book of Exodus

The Lord said to Moses, ‘Tell the sons of Israel this:
“You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans.

“If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him.

“If you take another’s cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity.”

The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 17(18):2-4,47,51

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

1. I love you, Lord, my strength, my rock, my fortress, my saviour.
My God is the rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.
The Lord is worthy of all praise, when I call I am saved from my foes. R.

2. Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves me,
He has given great victories to his king and shown his love for his anointed. R.

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 1:5-10

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread – and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 14:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who love me will keep my words,
and my Father will love them and we will come to them.

Alleluia!

Holy Gospel

Matthew 22:34-40

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your Spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to St. Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Communion Antiphon

Cf. Ps 19: 6

We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

The Eternal Law of Love

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A)

The Pharisees Question Jesus by James Tissot, 1886-94

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” Matthew 22:34–36

The Law of Moses, found in the Torah—the first five books of our Old Testament—is traditionally said to contain 613 commandments: 248 positive (“dos”) and 365 negative (“don’ts”). Among these laws, there was a longstanding debate among the rabbis about which commandment was the greatest. Therefore, though the Pharisee who posed this question to Jesus was testing Him, it was also likely a sincere inquiry.

Jesus certainly perceived the testing nature of the question, but He also recognized the genuine desire for truth. In response, He gently and directly offered a comprehensive answer, presenting a twofold summary that encompasses the entire Law and the prophets: “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind” and “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

These two commandments do more than summarize the Law and the prophets, they also encapsulate the essence of the petitions in the Lord's Prayer. Once we acknowledge God as our Father, we pray, "Hallowed be Thy name" and "Thy Kingdom come." These are the highest petitions we can make.

To hallow God's name is to give Him His due. God is thrice holy—holy, holy, holy. Our greatest duty is to hallow His name and His very being by magnifying and glorifying Him. This is the highest way to love Him with all our heart, soul, and mind.

In this life, we also turn to God in other ways. We ask for the grace to do His will, for His providential care, and for mercy and forgiveness. We pray to overcome trials and to be kept safe from the evil one. Each of these petitions, found in the Lord's Prayer, is essential and finds expression throughout the Torah and the New Testament. Yet in the end, every petition we make must ultimately lead to the highest commandment: to hallow God's name—to love Him with all we are—not merely because of what He does for us, but because of who He is. He is worthy of our love for His own sake, and it is our highest duty to offer Him that love.

In Heaven, many of the commandments and petitions we now make will cease. We will not ask for forgiveness, since we will be purified and sin no more. We will not pray for daily bread—pointing to the Sacraments and God's temporal care—because we will enter the eternal Banquet. Nor will we ask for strength to endure or receive protection from the evil one, because all trials will have been conquered in Christ. But we will eternally fulfill the greatest commandment and the first petition of the Lord's Prayer by forever hallowing God's name, crying out "holy, holy, holy," and loving Him with a purified and perfected love.

Likewise, the second greatest commandment will also be fulfilled in Heaven, just as the second petition of the Lord's Prayer—"Thy Kingdom come"—is fulfilled. The coming of God's Kingdom is our eternal participation in His glory and holiness, united with all our "neighbours"—the angels and saints. Our love of God will overflow into love of neighbour, and our love for one another will reflect and participate in our perfected love for God.

Reflect today on the inseparable bond between love of God and love of neighbour, and the eternal nature of these commandments. Does your life bear witness to these two great commands? Does your daily prayer arise from and lead to this twofold love? Hallow God's name not only with your lips, but also with your heart, soul, and mind. Allow that love to overflow to all people—especially those hardest to love—so that you show them the dignity and charity due to your neighbour, in anticipation of expressing that love forever in Heaven.

Lord of Heaven and earth, I thank You for Your holy commandments. I pray that I may live each one with full fidelity. Help me to hallow Your name in all things, to seek Your Kingdom above all, and to love all people with the love You have for them. May I see these commands, not as a burden, but the joy and direction of my life. Jesus, I trust in You.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,

*At the words that follow, up to and including
'the Virgin Mary', all bow.*

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

ST. FRANCIS, PRAY FOR US.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: Trusting in God's loving provision as we journey in faith, we turn to God and offer our needs:

1. We pray for Pope Leo, Bishop George and all the leaders of our Church: may they witness to the gospel by love of God and neighbour. We pray to the Lord.
2. We pray for members of the Church: may they come ever closer to Jesus, and live God's commandment of love. We pray to the Lord.
3. We pray for political leaders in our world: may they work to create places of love and justice, instead of conflict and division. We pray to the Lord.
4. We pray for those who feel lonely: may they experience God's love through the care and kindness of others. We pray to the Lord.
5. We pray for our parish community: may we grow in love of God in prayer and worship, and love of neighbour through care and service. We pray to the Lord.
6. We pray for those who mourn: may they come to know God's eternal love and peace. We pray to the Lord.

Celebrant: Lord God, you call us to love you above all things and to love one another as you love us. We offer these prayers through Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

*Note: Please find someone else to replace you if you are unable to do your roster.
Please notify the Parish Office of the change. Thank you.*

FR. NATHAN BARRIE

This week we gathered to celebrate the Funeral Mass for our beloved parishioner, Adrian Seale. I was blessed to have had several opportunities to minister to Adrian throughout his illness and to witness his great faith. As his family shared with me, I am sure Adrian will continue to be a witness of faith even in death, just as he was throughout his life. May his faith and the hope we have in the Resurrection bring comfort to all who mourn his passing.

I also had the joy of joining our Syro-Malabar community once again for Mass. It is always a blessing to experience the richness of their liturgical tradition and to be reminded of the beautiful diversity within our one Catholic Church.

Another special moment recently was celebrating the Baptism of a child, with four generations of the family gathered together. It was a beautiful reminder that faith is a gift handed on from one generation to the next. As we welcome a new member into the family of God, we are reminded of our responsibility to nurture and pass on the faith, so that those who come after us may also come to know and love Christ.

God bless us.

FR. JOEL VILLANUEVA OSJ

As we prepare to celebrate All Souls' Day on November 2, the Church invites us to remember our departed loved ones and pray for the souls of all the faithful departed. But why do we pray for them?

Our Catholic faith teaches that death does not end our relationship with those who have gone before us. Through Christ, we remain united in the Communion of Saints, a spiritual bond connecting the faithful on earth, the saints in heaven, and the souls undergoing purification in purgatory.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (1030–1032) teaches that those who die in God's grace but are not yet fully purified undergo purification before entering the joy of heaven. We therefore offer prayers, especially the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, for the souls of the departed. In 2 Maccabees 12:44–46, we find the biblical foundation for praying for the dead.

As a priest, I am often reminded that behind every name mentioned in our prayers is a story of love, sacrifice, joy, and sometimes unfinished goodbyes. We remember parents who cared for us, friends who walked beside us, and loved ones whose absence we still feel deeply. When we pray for them, we express our love in a way that transcends death.

LECTIO DIVINA

STEPS OF LECTIO DIVINA

1. Prepare (Silencio): Take a few moments to quiet yourself, get in a comfortable position, and become aware of God's presence.
2. Read (Lectio): Read the Scripture passage slowly, out loud if possible. Listen for a nudge: What words or images is the Spirit drawing you toward today?
3. Meditate (Meditatio): Re-read the Scripture passage, lingering over the person/word/phrase that captured your attention. Let your imagination engage the story/text. Reflect on how it might intersect with your life today.
4. Pray (Oratio): Read through the Scripture passage another time, allowing the Scripture to lead you into a prayer/response to God. Talk to God about what has come to mind, and how He might be inviting you to respond.
5. Contemplate (Contemplatio): Rest in the awareness of God's presence, remaining open to anything else the Holy Spirit might stir in your heart. If your mind wanders, gently redirect your thoughts toward God. Simply be still. Expect nothing. Enjoy a moment of fellowship with God that goes deeper than words. God loves you.

PPC Post

by Helen Brown, Chairperson of the Parish Pastoral Council

As a Parish Pastoral Council, we join together in heartfelt sorrow at the passing of Adrian Seale, Treasurer and long-time member of the Parish Finance Committee. Adrian served our parish community with humility and dedication. He was a man of deep faith and a true servant of God, generously sharing his gifts in service to the Church and the people of Bunbury. We extend our deepest sympathy and prayers to Lesley, his beloved wife of 39 years; his children Matt, Brad, Ryan, Cam, Josh, Amy and Liam; his grandchildren; and all members of his extended family. May they find comfort in God's love and the support of our parish community at this difficult time. May Adrian rest peacefully in the loving arms of our Lord.

Let us continue to pray for Pope Leo, asking the Lord to bless him with improving good health, peace and strength as he leads the universal Church.

Finally, we encourage all parishioners to consider the many ways they can become more actively involved in our faith community. There are opportunities to share your gifts through the stewardship pillars of Worship, Formation, Outreach and Hospitality. If you feel called to help, please contact the Parish Office and we will connect you with the appropriate ministry or group.

May God bless you and your families.

All Saints and All Souls

by Sr. Christine Clarke, PBVM

Next Sunday is the beginning of November, which is a special time for the Catholic community to remember and pray for all those who have died.

Next Sunday (1 November) is the feast of All the Saints – all those who have completed their earthly journey and are now with God. This feast is so important that it takes over from the Sunday prayers and readings. The feast was set up around the 4th Century when it became obvious there were many more martyrs than could be given a day each to celebrate them. So, All Saints' Day was established as a common feast day for all saints – all those regarded as having lived a holy life.

All Souls' Day is a day of prayer and remembrance for the souls of the departed. It began in the 11th century with people praying that deceased Christians might 'rest in peace'. The faithful remember, pray and celebrate Mass for those who have died. It is believed that the living faithful can assist the departed brothers and sisters to share in the resurrection of Jesus.

On All Souls' Day last year, Pope Leo reminded us: "we are not gathered merely to commemorate those who have departed from this world. Our Christian faith is founded upon Christ's Paschal mystery, ... our memories are more than just a recollection of the past but also, and above all, hope for the future. ... looking forward towards the goal of our journey, towards the safe harbour that God has promised us."
